Only half of Americans realize that there is a wide gap in financial well-being between White households and households of color,\(^1\) and even fewer realize that the problem is deeper than income inequality.

The income gap between Black and White households is a big problem, but the wealth gap between these groups is an even bigger problem.

OVER THE PAST THREE DECADES, THE BLACK-WHITE WEALTH GAP HAS NOT SIGNIFICANTLY IMPROVED\(^3\)

THE RECESSION HIT BLACK HOUSEHOLDS HARD, WHILE THE ECONOMIC RECOVERY OVERLOOKED THEM\(^4\)

TO CLOSE THE RACIAL WEALTH GAP, WE MUST ADDRESS SEVERAL CHALLENGES FACING BLACK HOUSEHOLDs TODAY.

1 PROVIDE ACCESS TO SAFE AND AFFORDABLE FINANCIAL PRODUCTS AND SERVICES

Many Black households are unbanked, meaning they do not have a bank account at all, while many more are underbanked, meaning they have a bank account but also rely on alternative financial services—such as payday lenders—to carry out everyday financial transactions.

In 2017, underserved consumers—including those unbanked and underbanked—spent $173 billion in fees and interest to use alternative financial services.

2 EXPAND ON OPPORTUNITIES TO INCREASE INCOMES AND SAVINGS

BLACK HOUSEHOLDS are more than two times more likely to live below the federal poverty line.

In every five Black households do not have enough savings to replace income at the poverty level for three months in the event of a financial emergency.

3 INCREASE ACCESS TO WEALTH-BUILDING OPPORTUNITIES

BLACK HOUSEHOLDS are unemployed at much higher rates today than White workers—a reality that has held consistent since the 1970s.

The mission of the Asset Building Policy Network (ABPN), a coalition of the preeminent civil rights and asset-building organizations, together with Citi Community Development, is to expand economic opportunities for low-income members of communities of color. We develop and promote research and program solutions aimed at generating savings and strengthening household financial resiliency within communities of color. We focus on systems and policy change across a range of areas—from financial services to entrepreneurship to immigration to the tax code—that impact wealth creation with the goal of not only creating equitable opportunities for communities of color to build wealth, but also addressing barriers and practices that strip wealth from the communities we serve.

Although there is no single solution to bridging and closing the racial wealth gap...

...The Asset Building Policy Network is committed to addressing this gap through multiple approaches that aim to generate savings and strengthen household financial resiliency within communities of color.
